Division of Senior Services

Area Agency on Aging

About Us

The Bergen County Division of Senior Services was established in 1966 under Federal Legislation of the Older Americans Act. The Division of Senior Services is the primary planning, coordinating and funding agency for senior programs and services, promoting the well-being, health and independence of Bergen County's older adults. The Division targets especially those vulnerable and in greatest social and economic need.

The Division also provides support to various community -based organizations that promote the well -being and independence of Bergen County's 200,000 older adults.

As the lead agency for the Bergen County's Aging and Disability Resource Connection (ADRC), the Division helps older adults, individuals with disabilities over the age of 18, and their caregivers, access the complex, long-term care, community-based, health and human services.

Bergen County Department of Human Services Division of Senior Services

Hospice Care

Hospice care is available for people whose physician has determined that they have an incurable condition and have a life expectancy of six months or less. Hospice services may be chosen by you or your caregiver, or recommended by your physician. Hospice care can be provided in the home or at an extended care facility, such as a nursing home or assisted living facility. There are also free-standing hospice centers, sometimes called residential hospice centers. Some families prefer this kind of setting because it feels more like home and less like an institution. Medicare, Medicaid and most private insurance plans cover the costs of hospice care, or you may pay out-of-pocket.

Housing Navigator Notes

Each low-income housing program has slightly different requirements and they all vary as to which has open wait lists and which do not. With qualifications for age, income and more, it can be tricky to navigate the options and figure out which one is best for you.

The most up-to date listing of apartments with open wait lists is the Bergen County Division of Senior Services' Navigator Notes. This electronic document has clickable links to view information about the properties and eligibility guidelines, learn about minimum and maximum income requirements, and where you can view, download and/or fill out applications online and more. It is updated every month, and features any new properties or ones with application deadlines in its "Hot Topics" section. Call 201-336-7400 or email seniors@co.bergen.nj.us to sign up for the Housing Navigator Notes.
